A WORD OF WELCOME AND EXPLANATION TO NEWCOMERS

Since the close of the Second Vatican Council in 1965, a revolution has taken place in the Catholic Church. The Mass has been changed. The Sacraments have been changed. And in so many places the doctrine, as well as the moral teaching of the Church has been changed.

We believe these changes are irreconcilable with what the popes have taught, especially the pre-Vatican II popes of the last 200 years. And so we do not go along with the changes.

Until such time as Our Lord restores order and normalcy as regards the situation in the Church, we hold fast, as St. Paul said, to the TRADITIONS.

In this chapel, only the traditional Latin Mass is celebrated. And we adhere without reservation or qualification to the traditional Catholic Faith and the unchangeable moral teaching of the Church. We believe that as Catholics we have a right and a solemn duty to hold fast to the traditions as we have received them from the Church.

The rules for the reception of Holy Communion are as follows:

One must accept and profess all the teachings of the Catholic Church. One must believe and abide by the traditional Catholic moral teaching, especially in regard to purity in marriage. Therefore, if someone has received an annulment since 1968, it is first necessary to talk to the priest outside of Confession before receiving Holy Communion.

One must, of course, be in the state of grace to receive Holy Communion; having made a good confession to a Catholic priest ordained in the traditional rite, which rite was used before 1968.

Young people must be trained in the traditional Catechism, such as the Baltimore Catechism, and they must be tested in the traditional Catechism by a traditional priest. They must also have made a good confession to a traditional priest.

One must not attend the New Mass, the indult Mass or the Masses of the Fraternity of St. Peter, nor may he attend Masses or receive Sacraments from those priests who are in communion with the "Old Catholic" sects, schismatics, or clergy who have received or trace their Orders from the late Archbishop Thuc. One must reject the pernicious errors of Fr. Leonard Feeney and that of "Feeneyism," concerning salvation and the Catholic Teaching of the Baptism of Desire.

One must be fasting from solid foods and alcoholic beverages for three hours and from liquids for one hour. Water does not break the fast and may be taken at any time.

If one, being in the state of grace, has resolved to attend the traditional Latin Mass regularly and exclusively, he is welcome to receive Holy Communion here.

Welcome, and thank you for your cooperation in these matters.
